Press Invite: March For A Free Tibet on 10th March and other events in The Hague

Dear journalist,

You are cordially invited to report on the march for Tibet on the 66th anniversary of the Tibetan Uprising Day, a very important day for Tibetans, in a year in which we also celebrate His Holiness the Dalai Lama's 90th birthday.

The march on the 10th of March is in The Hague, the international city of Peace and Justice, and starts from 10:30 am.

We expect thousands of people from all over Europe to join us from Koekamp towards the Chinese embassy.

Programme

There's going to happen a lot. We are having a two minute silence for the victims of the Chinese suppression and the earthquake in Tibet. There are many speakers, including the Tibetan minister of Foreign Affairs of the Central Tibetan Administration in exile Kalon Norzin Dolma, professional basketball player and human rights activist Enes Freedom and politicians. We also hope to announce other big names in the coming few weeks. We like to keep you posted.

Genocide and Suppression

In a world where a lot of things are happening (the Russian war in Ukraine, the tensions in the Middle-East), we see that the cultural genocide and suppression by the Chinese government towards the Tibetan people is forgotten by governments, news media and people in general.

This suppression is still going on: just look at what happened with the recent earthquake. We use the 66th anniversary of the Tibetan Uprising Day to raise awareness for this cause, to raise awareness of the wish to be free, have self determination as a people and for the survival of the Tibetan culture. We bring this with a message of compassion and peace.

That is why we are asking you to report on this march and three side events we are organizing in Amare in Den Haag:

March 7: Amare, Book Launch & Discussion with Jamyang Norbu

March 8: Amare, Panel Discussion: Resistance in Focus

March 10: “ Europe, Stand with Tibet!” Rally starting at Koekamp

March 11: Amare , Conversation Evening: Tibet and The World of Tomorrow

We are open to any interviews or talks with media. We are glad to help you with English and Dutch speaking people, information and pictures. Send an e-mail to: frank@bureautegenwicht.nl or send a reply to this e-mail.

Organisers

The 10th of March Rally is organised by the Tibetan Communities in Europe, including the International Campaign for Tibet, Tibet Support Group NL and Students for a Free Tibet, under the patronage of the two European members of the Tibetan Parliament in Exile and the Office of Tibet, Brussels. The Amare events are a contribution to the 10th March programme by the International Campaign for Tibet, Europe.
